

New Conversations® Dialogues

We haven't quite learned how to bridge the racial divide in our community – but together we can! Talking about race and racism can be the first step. Join us for the following free dialogues at the Chaska Community Center:

Saturday, January 14 – 9:00 AM-Noon

New Conversations About Race and Racism®

Thursday, February 9 – 6:30-8:30 PM

New Conversations® About White Privilege

Thursday, March 8 – 6:30-9:00 PM

New Conversations® Uncovering the Five Myths that Support Racism

Reserve your space for the
New Conversations® Dialogues
by contacting the Chaska Human Rights Commission at
(952) 448-9200, extension 7103
Space is limited.

The New Conversations® tools and facilitation are provided by The Saint Paul Foundation's Facing Race Initiative.
For more information visit www.FacingRace.org

Brought to you by the Chaska Human Rights Commission in partnership with Chaska Dunn Bros Coffee, Chaska Police Department, Carver County Sheriff's Department, Carver County Library and the Beacon Council.