The Chaska Police Department is currently investigating a possible theft by swindle complaint against a senior citizen. On Monday, August 22, between 11AM – 1:30PM, two males stopped at the Chaska residence of an elderly male and offered to paint a large shed located on the property. They agreed on a price of $840.00. When the painting job was completed, the suspects told the victim that he owed them $8,400.00, not the $840.00 they had originally agreed upon. The suspects then drove the victim to his bank and waited outside while the senior victim withdrew $8,400.00 and gave it to them. The victim was not given a receipt for the work.

Suspects: Both white males, 5'08" – 5'09", about 150 lbs, with brown hair.

Suspect Vehicle: white Chevrolet pick-up, possibly with a dent on the passenger side.

The Chaska Police Department would like to identify the individuals involved in this case. If you see or have contact with the above listed individuals, please contact your local law enforcement agency or the Chaska Police Department Investigations Unit at 952.448.4200.
